Mrs. Hawes to Lead U.S. Golf Team

Mrs. Theodore W. Hawes of Summit, N. J., a former United States senior women's golf champion, was named yesterday as captain of United States teams for two international events.

She will lead the American women golfers in the Curtis Cup match against the British at Porthcawl, Wales, Sept. 11 and 12, and in the first women's world amateur team championships at St. Germain, France, Oct. 1 through Oct. 4.

Mrs. Hawes won the senior women's title in 1961 and was runner-up three times. She is chairman of the United States Golf Association women's committee.

The members of the teams will be selected after the women's championship at Hutchinson, Kan., next week.
