

WOMEN'S MET SPECTATOR POLICY

Spectators are welcome and encouraged to attend tournaments. Rules for spectators are as follows:

1. Spectators attend Women's Met events at their own risk.
2. Everyone on the course must meet the dress code requirements for the course. Denim, t-shirts, and athletic or short shorts are not permitted.
3. SPECTATORS ARE PROHIBITED FROM USING GOLF CARTS
If a spectator has a disability that impedes their ability to traverse the golf course, the Women's Met will do its best to position the spectator at an appropriate spot on the golf course. Generally speaking, the Women's Met will not be responsible for shuttling spectators around the golf course.
4. Spectators must walk and stay in the rough or on the cart path and at least 30 yards away from the players.
5. Spectators are allowed to carry water, umbrellas, jackets, towels, and food for the players. Interaction with players should be limited to the exchange of such items.
6. Spectators are not allowed to give ADVICE to players. The player may be penalized for a violation. ADVICE is any counsel or suggestion, which could influence a player in determining his/her play, the choice of club or the method of making a stroke. Spectators shall not carry on conversations with players. This action could be construed as ADVICE.

Examples of advice:

“You should hit a 6-iron here”

“Take an unplayable lie”

“Keep your head down”

“Relax, take it one shot at a time”

7. Spectators may not carry a player's golf bag and/or clubs.
8. Cellular phones, pagers and other similar electronic devices must be turned off while on the competition course.

Penalties for violation of this policy:

First offense: Verbal warning

Second offense: Two-stroke penalty

Third offense: Disqualification of player

Spectators violating any of these policies may be asked to leave the golf facility.
