Mrs. Frelinghuysen Wins

Mrs. Joseph Frelinghuysen, Somerset Hills, playing selected drives and alternate shots with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Israel, Century, won the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's mother-daughter championship last Thursday.

In this 43d annual championship over the hilly, North Shore Country Club course in Glen Head, L. I., the winners edged two rival teams with 43, 40—83. Tied for second were Mrs. Albert Bower and her daughter, Sally, and Mrs. Gordon McGrath playing with her daughter, Grace. Each team had identical nines of 41, 43 for 84.

Mrs. William Tracy, Metropolitan champion, won this event last year playing with her daughter, Mrs. Zonnie Shiek, but this year she played with 12-year-old Leisa, and finished third with 45, 41—86.

The Bowers were low net victors, subtracting a handicap of 16 for a 68.
