

Gilmartin Wins in Sudden Death

Adrienne Gilmartin of North Hempstead Country Club defeated Jean Bartholomew of Garden City on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff yesterday and won the 57th Women's Metro Players Association junior girls (ages 17 and under) 36-hole golf championship at the Sands Point Country Club. The two had finished in a tie after 36 holes and remained tied after an 18-hole playoff. Bartholomew's 55-hole total was 248. Arle Presto of Lakeover, Conn., won low gross with a 173. Low net was Tammy Lohren of North Shore with a 137.