

Ferros capture Met Father-Daughter golf

ESSEX FELLS, N.J. — Cindy Ferro, winner of the recent Women's Metropolitan Golf Association Jersey Shore tournament for the Met 54-hole medal play championship, teamed with her dad, George, Friday at Essex Fells for additional honors.

The Ferros, playing out of Forest Hill Field Club in Bloomfield, teamed for another Met Father-Daughter championship in the WMGA's 16th annual scotch foursomes competition.

George and Cindy — ex-Met on the 5,844-yard, par-75 ladies' course before they made choice of ball for second shots.

George and Lynn Poydinecz of the home club, utilizing 19 strokes (half combined handicap), were eight strokes in front for the net title with 80-19-61. By draw of the 69-cards, Tom Hill and daughter Kappe of Winged Foot acquired the second set of prizes.

The WMGA's next tournament will be a Class B (handicaps of 16-36) event Thursday at Mount Kisco Country Club.

Junior Girls' and Jersey State titleholder, co-holder of the Met sister-brother championship and former finalist in the U.S. Junior Girls' championship — carded 41-35-76 in the selected-drive, alternate-stroke event.

They won by three shots over Mrs. Thomas Israel of Century and her dad, Joe Freylinghauser of Somerset Hills, who posted 38-41-79.

Fathers hit tee shots on the 6,221-yard, par-70 regular layout and their daughters drove

GROSS LEADERS

George Ferro and Cindy, Forest Hill	41-35-76
Jos. Frellinghuysen, Somerset Hills; Mrs. Thomas Israel, Century	38-41-79
Geo. Poydinecz and Lynn, Essex Fells	40-40-80
Michael Puchir and Carol, Mahopac	43-38-81
Dr. Stanley Fried and Susan, Old Westbury	38-43-81
Fred Nelson, Hillandale;
Mrs. Al Hanzl, Apple Rdg	41-41-82
Felix Hawes and Regine, Westchester C.C.	42-44-86

NET PRIZEWINNERS

1, Poydinecz-Poydinecz 80-19-61; 2, on draw, Thos. Hill and Kappe, Winged Foot 88-19-69, over Nelson-Hanzl 82-13-69.