Glen Oaks Star Scores an 80 to Lead Field in One-Day Play
at Pelham C. C.

MRS. O'REILLY IS SECOND

Crestwood Representative Cards an
86—Net Awards to Miss
Smith, Mrs. Sprague.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y., July 19.—Mrs. Leo G. Federman of Glen Oaks set the pace in the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's one-day competition at the Pelham Country Club today when she carded a gross of 80. She was far ahead of the field, an 86 by Mrs. T. J. O'Reilly of Crestwood being the next best score.

The two low net awards were captured by Miss Dorothy Smith of Pomonok and Mrs. C. Sprague of the Scottish American Club, who had 77 and 78, respectively. Mrs. Sprague was tied with Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor of Engineers, but won after cards were matched.

Mrs. Federman had a well-played round, going out in 39, and coming home in 41. An eagle 4 on the outward trip was a feature of her round.
