

Nobles card 77 to win WMGA dad-daughter

Karen Noble and her father, James, of Morris County blended shots for a 77 and the championship of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's 42d annual Father-Daughter tournament yesterday at the Echo Lake Country Club in Westfield.

Daniel and Donna Bianca of Tamarack, the 1983 tournament champions, finished second with a 79 in the alternate-drive, selected-shot format. Al O'Neil and Mrs. Mary Ann Richter of Canoe Brook combined for an 81 to finish third.

The net title went to Thomas Aitken and his daughter, Heather, of Montclair, who finished with a 67. Tied for second at 69 were the Echo Lake teams of Jack and Patti Meeker and Rick and Debra Danser.

Nobles win title

WESTFIELD — James and Karen Noble of Morris County Golf Club posted a low gross of 77 in winning the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's Father-Daughter Championship Tuesday at Echo Lake Country Club. Heather and Thomas Aitken of Montclair Country Club captured the low net title with a 67.

WMGA father-daughter

At Echo Lake CC, Westfield

Low gross

Karen and James Noble, Morris County CC _____77
Donna and Daniel Bianca, Tamarack CC _____79
M.A. Richter and Al O'Neil, Canoe Brook CC ____81

Low net

Heather and Thomas Aitken, Montclair CC _____67
Patti and Jack Meeker, Echo Lake CC _____69
Deborah and Rick Danser, Echo Lake CC _____69