

Philadelphia women capture WMGA crown at Winged Foot

The Women's Golf Association of Philadelphia scored 20½ points to take first place in the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's intercity junior team matches Wednesday at the Winged Foot West course.

The WMGA placed second in the three-team meet with 13 points and Massachusetts' Women's Golf Association rounded out the competition with 11½. Points were allotted for the front nine, back nine and 18th hole performance.

Margaret Platt of Knollwood CC, who earned second gross honors in the practice round, led the WMGA team made up of two threesomes using Karen Nobel of Morris County (winner of the longest drive in the practice round), Nancy Teek of Wykagyl CC, Debbie Doniger of Fairfield, Michele Robinson of Ardsley CC and alternate Alison Wojnas of Plainfield.

GANNETT

6/27/85

WMGA girls junior golf

Results of Wednesday's Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's Junior girls intercity team matches at the par 36-37-73, 6,059-yard Winged Foot West course.

Team standings

WGA of Philadelphia	20½ points
WMGA	13 points
WGA of Mass.	11½ points

WMGA team

Margaret Platt, Knollwood; Karen Nobel, Morris County; Nancy Teek, Wykagyl; Debbie Doniger, Fairfield; Michele Robinson, Ardsley. Alternate: Alison Wojnas, Plainfield.