

PERIPATETIC AMATEUR:

Westchester's Margaret Platt, the best female amateur in the county, recently played in two prestigious national events and had respectable showings in both.

At the U.S. Women's Amateur held two weeks ago in Pinehurst, N.C., Platt handily won her third-round match, defeating Californian Jean Zedlitz 5 and 4, before losing a tough quarterfinal match 1 up to Carole Thompson of Sewickly, Pa. In the match against Thompson, Platt led by three holes with five holes to go.

At last week's 59th annual Women's Trans National Championship held in Columbia, S.C., Platt made it to the round of 16 in the 144-person tournament. Even though she shot a 3-under-par 69, Platt lost to Katie Peterson of Plantation, Fla., 1 up.
