

Miss Knapp's 81 Is Low Gross At North Shore

Mrs. Federman Second
Stroke Behind; Low Net
Won by Miss Smith

By Kerr N. Petrie

GLEN HEAD, L. I., Aug. 2. — Miss Rosalie Knapp, of the Women's National Golf and Tennis Club, who set a record of 78 for that course in the Long Island women's championship recently, gave another demonstration of her advancing skill today at the North Shore Country Club when she led in a field of eighty and won low gross prize with 81 in a tournament under the auspices of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association.

To capture the trophy Miss Knapp had to pick up six strokes on the last four holes to defeat Mrs. Leo Federman, of Glen Oaks, by one stroke. She accomplished this through the instrumentality of her own solid finish and a breakdown in the game of her rival. Had Mrs. Federman continued to step along on the last four holes as she had been going she would have left no room for argument.

Miss Knapp, who with a 42 was a stroke more than Mrs. Federman to the turn, dropped farther behind at the tenth, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth. Regaining one of these with a 4 at the fifteenth, Miss Knapp picked up two more with a brilliant 3 at the seventeenth and came on to win by a single shot with a steady finishing 4.

Miss Beatrice Gottlieb, of Lakeville, this year's Metropolitan runner-up, was out in 43 and home in 41, and took third place with 84. Miss Gottlieb actually led Miss Knapp at the twelfth, but was caught at the thirteenth, beaten one stroke on the fifteenth and two more at the seventeenth.

Mrs. Robert C. Lake, of Old Country Club, Flushing, holder of the Women's Long Island title last year, scored an 86, and Mrs. Henry C. March, of North Shore, 88. Another star, Mrs. J. L. Anderson, of Cherry Valley, played fine golf from tee to green, but three-putted six greens and ran her total to 90.

Miss Dorothy Smith, of Pomonok, won low net prize with 80—11—78.
