

Stray Boots

—By Wesley F. (Bo) Gill—

Sports Editor

If you think you have a golfing future, don't watch the fine young women who played for the past two days at the Powelton Club in the Inter-City matches . . . You will no doubt switch to tennis, swimming or card-playing . . .

o o o

Two sixteen-year-olds, Amy Gibbons of Milton Hoosic Country Club and Paula Slivinsky of Salem Country Club, were playing the 17th Tuesday when they put on a pleasing exhibition for fans . . . The 17th is a par five for the young lassies . . . Both hit fine tee shots with Miss Gibbons driving into the brook . . . MISS Slivinsky was just short of the brook . . . Both golfers placed their second shots within six feet of the cup . . . So, Miss Gibbons was putting for a birdie after taking a drop and Miss Slivinsky was within reach of an eagle . . . Miss Slivinsky settled for a birdie and Miss Gibbons for a par . . .

o o o

When Miss Gibbons teed off on the first hole and sent her tee shot upward past the big trees and onto the slope between the two sand traps, many golfers' eyes were opened . . . This is the brand of golf that is played by the young ones the country over . . .