

LINKS HONORS TAKEN BY MRS. UNTERMAYER

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

DEAL, N. J., July 30—Mrs. Sophie Untermeyer of the Hollywood Golf Club posted an 82 in the final round of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's 54-hole medal play Shore tournament today to carry off top honors with a total gross score of 237.

Covering her home course with a final day card of 40, 42—82, Mrs. Untermeyer finished six strokes ahead of Mrs. Philip Cudone of The Knoll, who had an aggregate of 243.

The Hollywood woman slammed out a four-over-men's-par 40 on the front nine. Mrs. Cudone duplicated her 40 on the outgoing circuit but slipped to a 44 on the incoming nine. Mrs. Untermeyer put together three consistent rounds of 75, 80, 82 for her total, while Mrs. Cudone had gross cards of 77, 82, 84.

Five shots behind Mrs. Cudone and eleven shots behind Mrs. Untermeyer was Mrs. H. C. Ramsey of Baltusrol, who grossed a 77, 84, 87 for 248.

Mrs. William Hockenjos of Crestmont, who last year finished in a tie with Miss Laddie Irwin for third place, wound up fourth in this year's competition with 258.

The 54-hole net medal was taken by Mrs. J. Dorment of Montclair. She negotiated the first round at the Deal Country Club in a net 78, which she followed up with another net 78 over the tough Rumson links. The Montclair woman chopped two shots from her previous rounds today by posting a net 76 for a 232. Mrs. Untermeyer finished third in the net race with a net 74, 79, 81—234.
