Her Golf Clubs Wear Mink

By John M. Brennan

LITTLE wonder the Women's Cross County Association tournaments draw such sizable fields . . . the gals want to get a glimpse of the natty silver blue mink coats that adorn the wooden clubheads belonging to the president of the organization, comely Mrs. Saul Weinsier of Fresh Meadow Country Club . . . Mrs. Weinsier creates a mild sensation with the gorgeous mink socks at every Association tournament.
