ENGLEWOOD, N. J., Sept. 18
— Mrs. Gordon McGrath and Laura Leonard of Piping Rock won the 10th annual Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's 36-hole best-ball of partners tournament today.

Mrs. McGrath and Miss Leonard scored a two-under par 35, 35—70 over the Englewood Golf Club's hilly 5,870-yard course.

Added to their first round of 74 this gave the Piping Rock team a total of 144.

Tied for second place at 146,
were the defending champions, Mrs. Marge Mason of Ridgewood and La Junta White of Englewood, and Mrs. Allison Choate of Apawamis and Maureen Orcutt of White Beeches.

The defending champions added an even-par 34, 38—72 to their first-round tally of 74.

Mrs. Choate and Miss Orcutt had a 35, 36—71. Yesterday they had a 75.

Yesterday's leader, Mrs. William R. Kirkland Jr. of Meadow Brook and Mrs. Sophie Untermeyer of Century, with a 69 faltered today to finish with a 79. This placed them in a tie for third with Mrs. William Greenberg of Ridgeway, the Westchester open champion, and her partner, Mrs. Harold Fink of Hampshire. The Westchester team added a 35, 35—70 to their first round of 78 for 148.

The first low-net prize went to Mrs. Choate and Miss Orcutt, with a 138.

Mrs. McGrath started her team to victory by getting birdies on the second and sixth holes. On the incoming nine, Miss Leonard had a birdie on the 12th and sank a chip off the edge of the green for another birdie on the 16th.
