

Mrs. Gordon WMGA Prexy

The most influential distaff golfing organization in the nation, the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association, yesterday elected an outstanding Long Islander, Mrs. Murray Gordon of Harbor Hills G&CC, Port Jefferson, as its president at the annual election meeting held at Hotel Delmonico, Manhattan.

Mrs. Gordon, v-p during the past two years, succeeded Mrs. DeWitt Alexandre of Somerset Hills CC, N.J.

Mrs. Leon J. Weil of Inwood CC and Mrs. Sanford Goldzier of Cold Spring CC were elected to the board for terms of two years.

Mrs. Gordon announced the annual championship will be played at St. George's G&CC, Stony Brook, June 23-27.

The new prexy also revealed the personnel of the 1969 Griscom Cup squad that last year won the intercity championship in the action against the better players of Boston and Philadelphia.

Maureen Orcutt, Mrs. Johnstone, Mrs. Marge Mason, Justine Cushing of Piping Rock Club, Mrs. Al Bower of Pelham CC, Mrs. Bruce McGhie of Apawamis Club and Mrs. Sherburne Hart were named. Among the alternates named are Mrs. Pat Cici of Cedar Brook CC, Mrs. Thorne Dempsey of Piping Rock, Mrs. Charles Spauling of Greenwich, Conn. and Laura Leonard of Piping Rock. — BRENNAN
