

Two Teams at 147 In Women's Golf

Special to The New York Times

WHITE PLAINS, May 22—Mrs. Andrew Sage and Mrs. Albert Key of Piping Rock, and Mrs. Gordon McGrath of Piping Rock and Mrs. Justine Cushing of Meadow Brook finished with 147's at Elmwood County Club today in the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association annual two-day, four-ball, best-ball tournament.

They will hold an 18-hole playoff for low gross over the same 5,868-yard, par-36, 37—73 course, and the losing team will win low net. The Piping Rock team had a net of 132, and Mrs. McGrath and Mrs. Cushing scored 134 net.

The leading scores:

Mrs. Andrew Sage and Mrs. Albert Key, Piping Rock	75	72—147
Mrs. Gordon McGrath, Piping Rock, and Mrs. Justine Cushing, Meadow Brook	74	73—147
Mrs. Henry B. Cross Jr., Essex County, and Mrs. A. Sherburne Hart, Baltusrol	79	71—150
Mrs. Thomas Aydelotte, Stanwich, and Mrs. James Scowcroft, Greenwich C.C.	75	78—153
Mrs. Alexander F. Munro, Innis Arden, and Regina Hawes, Westchester C.C.	77	76—153
Mrs. Albert B. Bower, Pelham C.C., and Mrs. D. V. Di Cintio, Bonnie Briar	78	76—154
Mrs. A. Cantor, Fresh Meadow, and Mrs. Walter Cooperstein, Glen Oaks	78	77—155
Mrs. William Tracy and Mrs. Lee Beard, Essex Falls	79	78—157

NY TIMES
5/23/74