

Met To Presto

JULY 3
Vol. 35

Amanda Presto, a former junior girls champ, won the Amateur Championship of the Women's Metropolitan (N.Y.) GA when she defeated Barbara Jones, one up, at the Huntington Crescent CC in Huntington, N.Y.

Presto, 20, rallied from a two-down deficit after the first 18 to overtake and finally beat Jones who just missed a birdie on the 36th which would have sent the match into extra holes.

Presto, a Greenwich, Conn., resident who will enter the University of Kentucky this fall, gained the final when she defeated Gail Flanagan, 2 and 1. Jones pulled a major upset in her semi-final encounter when she defeated medalist and five-time champion Judy Cooperstein, two up.

—Red Hoffman