

Imburgias Win Women's MGA

By BILL BOYLAN

Laura and George Imburgia of Bonnie Briar CC, Larchmont, N.Y., Women's MGA Husband Wife Championship at the Sleepy Hollow CC, Scarborough, N.Y., for the second year in a row.

The tournament is played in a Rinehurst format. Each player drives, then hits the teammate's ball for the next shot, their own ball again.

The Imburgias' used Laura's drive, George's approach to the green, and Laura's approach putt.

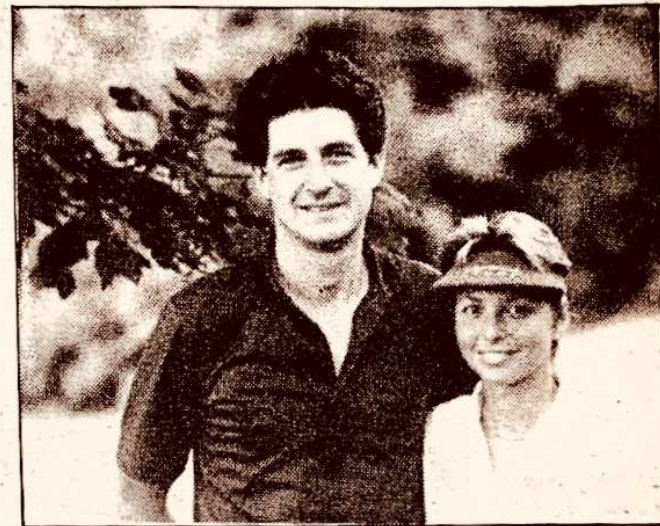

strong iron play and Laura's excellent putting held off a strong field with a score of 71.

George, in the construction business, plays to a 3 handicap and Laura, an assistant supervisor at Pepsico, plays to a five. Birdies at the 3rd, 14th, and 15th helped offset bogies at the 1st and 4th for a one over par round.

Jane and Adam Kugler of Alpine CC, Demarast, N.J., shot 75 and won the event, shot 78 and came in fourth place in 72-team field.

Laura and George Imburgia of Bonnie Briar defended gross title with a 71 at Sleepy Hollow, Scarborough, N.Y.

Adam and Jane Kugler of Alpine were low net with 69.

Howard Kaskel, owner of Doral CC, Susan Kaskel, Gwen Fisher and Lester Fisher, all of Fenway.

Jesse Gelles and Claire Gelles of Woodmere and Helen Carter and Elliot Carter of Indian Hills.