53rd SISTER-BROTHER CHAMPIONSHIP

The 53rd Sister-Brother Championship was held on July 30 at Green Brook Country Club in North Caldwell, NJ. Fifteen teams played the 6336-yard, par 71 course, and last year's champions successfully defended their title.

Rebecca Montgelas, Wee Burn, and her brother Jeffrey Sweet, Sewickley Heights, shot a 76 to tie Nancy and Walter Peek, Wykagyl. Rebecca and Jeffrey prevailed in the ensuing play-off with a par on the first hole. 2nd Gross was won by Jean and John Schneider, Winged Foot, with a 78.

The Peeks won the Low Net Prize with a 69, and Carol and Bruce Hickie, Manasquan River, shot 71 for 2nd Net.

FATHER-DAUGHTER CHAMPIONSHIP

Victoria and William Sala, Montclair, are the new Father-Daughter Champions. They scored a gross 74 on Bedford Golf and Tennis Club's 5683-yard, par 73 course on August 7. The day was overcast and pleasantly cool for the 54 players.

Susan Connors, The Creek, and her dad, Ted Peters, Wheatley Hills, won Low Net with 69. Last year's winners, Rebecca Montgelas, Wee Burn, and J. Philip Sweet, Sewickley Neights, took 2nd Gross with 79.

2nd Net were Lynn and Anthony Tozzoli, Rockland; 3rd Gross, Christine and John Desch, Cherry Valley and Southampton; and 3rd Net winners were Barbara Clark and George Easley, Morris County.

MOTHER-SON CHAMPIONSHIP

On hot, sultry July 9, fifty-four teams played the Mother-Son Championship at Hempstead Country Club. The format was selected drives and alternate shots.

The new champions, Diana and John Pinkham, Montclair, shot a sterling 76 to win by 5 strokes. Unfortunately, a sudden torrential downpour and thunderstorm caught 8 teams still on the golf course. They were unable to complete play when the course was officially closed for the day. They graciously accepted their fate as "the rub of the green."

Other winners were:

- *2nd Gross 81
Ruth and Robert Moore, Rockville Links
- 3rd Gross 81
Jane and John Schultz, Metropolis
- Low Net 69
Ora and Steven Kokol, Lake Mohawk
- *2nd Net 71
Mary Lou and Gordon VanNote,
Spring Lake
- 3rd Net 71
Mickey and Richard Bogen, Edgewood

MOTHER-DAUGHTER CHAMPIONSHIP

On July 16, Karen Noble, a member of Wake Forest's golf team and her mother, Rie, who serves on the Board of the WMGA, won the Mother-Daughter Championship with a gross score of 71. Karen and her mother both play out of Morris County G.C. and enjoyed the 5636-yard, par 73 course at Montammy where the Championship was held.

Kendra Beard, who has also played for Wake Forest and is now working with the USGA in development, and her mother, Ann, Essex Fells, a former president of the WMGA, won 2nd Gross with 79.

Ann Enstine, Shinnecock, and her mother, Julia, Southampton, successfully defended their net title with a 69; Carol Dayer and Donna Gencorelli, Lake Mohawk, took 2nd Net with 71.

Karen Noble has since won the New Jersey State Women's Golf Committee Women's Amateur Championship. Congratulations Karen!
