

Match Play Championship

Phyllis Schofield, referee (Sanford Cup) and Lois McTurk, referee (Championship)

The 90th Match Play Championship was played June 14-17 at St. George's Golf and Country Club in Stony Brook, New York. St. George's course, well-known to our Long Island members, was new to many from our New Jersey, Westchester and Connecticut districts. "A sporty course," as described by course superintendent Gary Baughman, the layout provided a stiff challenge for Monday morning qualifiers. Scores posted for the qualifying round were among the highest posted in the past few years.

Match Play began on Tuesday, with morning and afternoon rounds. By the end of play on Wednesday, Lee Ann Vogel of Southward Ho and Caroline Salas of Piping Rock had earned the right to compete for the Match Play Championship Trophy and T.D. Partilla of Indian Hills and Arleen Carman of Port Jefferson would contend for the Sanford Cup.

On the morning of the finals it was difficult to predict the outcome of the Championship match. Both Lee Ann and Caroline had won decisive victories over their opponents on their road to the finals. Lee Ann, however, was the stronger of the two that day, closing out the match on the 31st hole to become the 1993 Match Play Champion. It's worth noting that Lee Ann competed in the Griscom Cup Match played at Winged Foot earlier in the month and helped lead the WMGA to victory over Philadelphia and Massachusetts by taking all points from her opponents.

Arleen Carman won the Sanford Cup competition. Playing a solid, steady game, she defeated T.D. Partilla 3&2.

This year's winners will defend their titles at Knickerbocker Country Club in Tenafly, New Jersey, June 13-16, 1994.

Match Play Championship: Caroline Salas, runner-up and Lee Ann Vogel, winner

Match Play Championship, Sanford Cup: Arleen Carman, winner and T.D. Partilla, runner-up
