

Aitken, D'Alessio surge into championship round

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. — Favored New Jerseyans Helen Aitken of Montclair and Diana D'Alessio of Newton yesterday surged into the championship round of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's Match-Play Championship at the Ridgeway Country Club.

All four semifinalists were New Jersey golfers. Aitken, the defending champion, edged Mary Eichhorn of Spring Lake, 1 up. D'Alessio, the 1995 WMGA Stroke-Play champion and Player of the Year, had a little easier time when she defeated Donna Young of Springdale, 5 and 4.

Aitken and D'Alessio will square off today in a scheduled 36-hole windup for the championship.
