

2016 Scholarship Recipients

Nicolette Dilluvio
Westbury, NY

Nicolette is a recent graduate of Kellenberg Memorial High School and plans on continuing her education at St. Francis University in Pennsylvania. Nicolette has played golf her whole life beginning at the First Tee Program in Nassau County where she now interns and plays on their Inter Facility Team. She played on her high school varsity team for five years. Nicolette is a member of the National Honor Society, participated in the Communications Club and mentors both elementary and high school students. She had the honor of participating in the Advanced Players Academy in Reno, Nevada which gave her a taste of playing collegiate golf. Nicolette's future plans include pursuing her goal of becoming a physical therapist while still getting to play as much golf as possible.

Gianna Messina
Budd Lake, NJ

Gianna recently graduated from Morris County School of Technology and intends to further her education at the University of South Carolina. Gianna has always had a passion for sports, as she played on her school's varsity golf, soccer and basketball teams for four years. She is a member of the National Honor Society and participated in the Environmental Club. Fun fact about Gianna is that she is a triplet! Gianna would like to major in sports and entertainment management with a concentration in sports marketing.

Sophia Verducci
Park Ridge, NJ

Sophia is a recent graduate of Park Ridge High School and is very excited to be playing collegiate golf at Mount Holyoke College in Massachusetts where she intends to major in Business and Finance Law and aspires to one day become a lawyer. During her high school career, she played on the boys' varsity golf team, as well as being part of the winter track team and a member of the marching band. She is a PEAK Mentor, which she finds very rewarding as well as a fire department volunteer. She is a caddie at Alpine Country Club and loves to spend any free time improving her game.

Caroline Assuma
Waccabuc, NY

Caroline just graduated from John Jay High School and will be attending Roger Williams University of Rhode Island in the fall. Caroline had a very successful high school career; she served as a Student Council officer four years in a row, she played on the boys' JV golf team for two years and then joined the boys' varsity golf team for the next two years. Golf has always been a huge part of her life and she currently works at the Waccabuc Country Club's golf shop and bag room. Her dream is to major in communications and one-day work in the golf industry; making a career out of the sport that she loves.

Nicole Triano
Cortlandt Manor, NY

Nicole is a graduate of Yorktown High School and is going to attend Methodist University in North Carolina in the fall. She wants to major in business administration, with a concentration in professional golf management. Nicole's love for golf can be traced back to her first golf clinic in sixth grade. Impressively, she played on the boys' varsity golf team from ninth grade to eleventh grade, and for her senior year played for the girls' varsity golf team. She participated in Nike Golf Camps, the Met PGA Tournament four years running, and frequently volunteers at various golf camps and clinics. Nicole hopes to become a golf professional or work for the PGA or LPGA.

Karla Chavez
Paterson, NJ

Karla is a graduate of Passaic County Technical Institute and plans on attending Passaic County Community College and then Rutgers University in New Jersey. Karla has a strong interest in computer science and hopes to major in that, with a concentration in computer engineering or Nano engineering. In high school, she participated in the ERASE Club, the Book Club, the History Club, as well as varsity track and golf. Karla has a strong passion for golf and really enjoyed her three years of high school golf, not only for the opportunity to improve her game but also the comradery of her teammates.
