The Woodway Team Wins Its First Interdistrict Championship

The WMGA's 62nd team match season began on April 22. The weather cooperated for the most part, matches were very competitive and competition intense. By the time the sun set on May 6th, over 900 women representing 134 clubs had finished another terrific season of team matches and the Interdistrict Championship slate was decided.

Montclair Golf Club in New Jersey was set to defend its title against Piping Rock on Long Island, which had been quite a force in the '80's and '90's, and Woodway representing Westchester/Connecticut, which was eager to avenge its loss in 2006.

The battle for the Helen Hockenjos-Ruth March Founders Trophy was contested on the long and challenging Quaker Ridge Golf Club in Scarsdale, New York. This A.W. Tillinghast course is considered one of the top 40 golf courses in the United States.

Montclair's Captain Valerie DePiro brought a strong team consisting of Adrienne MacLean, KC Maloney, Jennifer Cifelli and Sue Walsh. The "Jersey Girls" had to contend with the Piping Rock team led by Captain Nina Burchfield, Hope Lapsley, Eileen Araskog, Missy Crisp and Cynthia Dolezal. Both had to watch out for the home district club, Woodway, a formidable team of Sheila Torgan, Kile Keever, Beth Rowley, Captain Lise Sweitzer and Gail Garcia. Sheila and Kile were sentimental favorites as their moms, Sis Madigan Healey and Joan Keever, played on Woodway's team for over 25 years.

As the committee watched on the 18th green, Sheila Torgan sunk a 35 foot downhill-sidehill birdie putt to win both of her matches. The second match also ended on the 18th green with Kile Keever sinking her putt to win against Long Island and tie New Jersey. The score was 4 for LI, 6 for NJ and 8 for Westchester/CT. Valerie DePiro, playing in #3 position, won both of her matches outright to turn the tables in New Jersey's favor. By the completion of the 4th match, NJ was ahead of W/C by only two points. The last match told the story. No one went to lunch; everyone gathered around the 18th green. Cynthia Dolezal's 4 points were not enough to help LI, but Gail Garcia's 4 points took Woodway over the top to victory and a final score of 18 to NJ's 16 and LI's 10.

All the players should be congratulated for a thrilling finish to the 2008 Team Match Season!!

A very special note of gratitude to all the Team Captains, Series Captains, Met Reps and especially my three exceptional District Captains, Peggy Richling – LI, Sheila Wall – NJ Janet Karabin – WC for making the 62nd Team Match Season a huge success.

Westchester/Connecticut Wins the Golf Illustrated Trophy

Essex Fells Country Club – May 20

The 83rd competition for the Golf Illustrated Trophy was held at Essex Fells Country Club in Essex Fells, New Jersey on Tuesday, May 20th. Captains Alicia Kapheim (NJ), Lisa Evans (LI) and Barbara Israel (W/C) arrived with their teams of ten players, ready to play the triangular contest in a Nassau format. In each match one point was awarded for the front, one point for the back, and one point overall. The adverse conditions of wind and chilly temperatures did not deter these women from the task at hand. The Westchester/Connecticut team was particularly hungry for a victory as New Jersey and Long Island had denied them the trophy for close to nine years. Captain Barbara Israel ignited her team by ordering shirts which were boldly imprinted, "Best of the West/CT" and, indeed, they seemed to provide the lucky charm.

The competition was fierce throughout the line-up. Alicia Kapheim chipped in her approach shot on the 1st hole to set the bar in her match. Barbara Israel answered by sinking a putt on the 18th hole to snatch a full point for the back nine. As the team captains tallied the points through the ninth match New Jersey was just 1 point ahead of Westchester/Connecticut. There were some tense moments waiting for the final match to finish. Laurie White was swarmed by her W/C teammates when she admitted to taking 5 out of a possible 6 points to NJ's 2 points. Westchester/Connecticut at long last had the honor of raising the Golf Illustrated Trophy!

At the finish, Westchester/ Connecticut won with 33 points, New Jersey followed with 32 points and Long Island earned 24 points. A great round of matches, a gritty victory, and a wonderful host club made this competition at Essex Fells one to remember.

The 79th Team Competition for the Myra D. Paterson Trophy at the Mill River Club in Oyster Bay, New York unfortunately was plagued by poor weather conditions. A lightning delay, which pulled the three teams off the course, lasted through lunch. This delay did not seem to faze the LI ladies. They were on a mission to reclaim the title from New Jersey. Both the New Jersey and Westchester/ Connecticut teams had opportunities as the day progressed; but the Long Island team proved too strong and only seemed to gather steam after a delicious lunch at Mill River. They pulled into the clubhouse at the end of the long day with a total of 36 points. Westchester/ Connecticut finished with 32 points and New Jersey earned 21 points.

The WMGA would like to extend a warm thank-you to all the participants for their patience and to the host club, Mill River, for providing such a welcome port on a stormy day.

105th Intercity Team Matches for the Griscom Cup

Somerset Hills Country Club – May 28 & 29

The magnificent Somerset Hills Country Club was the backdrop on May 28th and 29th for the 105th playing of the Intercity Matches, which are contested annually for the Griscom Cup. The course provided a keen test for the matches and the visiting teams (Women's Golf Association of Philadelphia and the Women's Golf Association of Massachusetts) were in agreement that Somerset Hills is truly one of the great venues for golf in the United States.

Representing the WMGA were: Cheryl Brayman, Sue DeKalb, Mary Eichhorn, Gail Flanagan, Fran Gacos, Lee Ann Lewis, Adrienne MacLean, Sheila Torgan, and team captain Donna Young. The veteran WMGA team put themselves into position to win back the cup with a good first day showing of 13½ points. They stood just 2 points behind the Massachusetts team, who held the lead with 15½ points after the foursomes' portion of the competition. The WMGA also put up a solid showing in singles (played on the second day of competition) by scoring 26½ points, giving them a two day total of 40 points. Unfortunately, this was not enough to topple the winning squad from Massachusetts who tallied a total of 44½ points. Philadelphia finished third with 23½ points.

The Intercity Matches each year provide an opportunity for the competitors to represent their associations and renew acquaintances, as well as make lasting friendships through this wonderful and unique competition. Thanks to the members and staff of Somerset Hills for their gracious hospitality. Their enthusiasm for each and every match was tangible. A special thanks to Kendra Graham, the club member liaison, for all of her efforts on behalf of the WMGA. Also special thanks to Head Golf Professional, Adam Machala, and his staff as well as Club Manager, Mary Ellen Rudin, for their hard work ensuring the matches ran smoothly and providing such an enjoyable two days of competition for all the contestants.

68th Junior Intercity Tournament

Worcester Country Club – June 25 & 26

The WMGA was well represented by six terrific young golfers at this year's Enos Cup. It was the 68th year for the Intercity Tournament which matches the best under eighteen year old golfers from the Women's Golf Association of Massachusetts (WGAM), the Women's Golf Association of Philadelphia (WGAP), and the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association (WMGA). This year the competition was held at the Worcester Country Club in Worcester, Massachusetts on June 25th and 26th.

The team was led by returning veterans Chloe Altchek (Westchester Country Club) and Emily Hyman (Sunningdale Country Club). Joining them were Lizzie Abbondandola (Brookville Country Club), Eliza Breed (Round Hill Club), Victoria deGroodt (Osiris Country Club), and Molly Smith (Lake Mohawk Golf Club). The girls were grouped in threesomes and played in two simultaneous matches against their counterparts from Philadelphia and Massachusetts. Despite wonderful play and fierce competition, the WMGA team was not able to "three-peat" and bring home the trophy for a third consecutive year. Philadelphia won with 18 points, Massachusetts came in second with 16 points, and we were third with 11 points. The girls demonstrated outstanding sportsmanship, team spirit, and a contagious enthusiasm for the game making it a winning experience for everyone involved.

7th Women's Metropolitan Amateur Championship

St. George's Golf and Country Club – June 3

Fifty-one golfers took up the challenge set by the St. George's Golf and Country Club on East Setauket, Long Island and were treated to a day of spectacular views, pristine course conditions and punishing pin placements. Their skills were definitely tested by the end of the 18 holes. Barbara Israel, Century, was crowned Champion with a low Gross score of 74. Lois Kim, Harbor Links, and Daria Cummings, Tashua Knolls, followed with scores of 77 and 79 respectively. Helen Bernstein won the low Net prize with a score of 76 in a match of cards with two St. George's players, Sarah Guarascio and Sandra Heeter who made their club proud with their fine play.

When asked by Tee Talk to discuss her tournament experience, Barbara Israel provided a vivid description which is included here. It is almost as if we were on the course with her!

"I had never seen St. George's before but knew it was an old one (Devereux Emmett) and, as my playing partner Cheryl Brayman told me, one that we were very lucky to get for the tournament. I met the course head on as I drove it left on the first hole and was totally blocked by a huge, old tree. Nice start, double bogey."

"Cheryl and I were in a cart together and that was a lucky break as she knew the course and was very helpful pointing out where the greens were and where the next hole was. I was hitting the ball well for the most part and I remember getting on one of the par 5's in two and also getting a really friendly kick from a tree that saved me on one hole. Evidently, and I was to find out most of this later, the real crunch time began on the par 3 15th hole. It was around 155 yds. or so, downhill to a pin placement that was very much on the right. Cheryl hit it safely left into the heart of the green and my shot went toward the pin and settled about 5 ft. past the pin. I watched Cheryl hit a very nice conservative putt that kept rolling and rolling and when it got to the hole went diving, and I mean diving, off the edge of the world and the green. At this point I decided that anything past the pin was utter death and that I shouldn't go for the birdie putt. So I lagged it cautiously and came away with a par 3. Cheryl and I agreed that it was a crazy pin placement. Little did I know that I would later hear that I was the only competitor to have had a par on that hole that day."

"The real surprise, however, was that the next two holes also had extraordinarily difficult pin placements, both placed at the edge of huge false fronts. I managed a par on the 16th (Cheryl pointed out that if my second putt hadn't gone in it would have been 30 ft. off the green). And, by the time we reached the 17th, I was so shell-shocked that I was laughing at the seventy foot false front with the pin perched at its edge. I managed a bogey on that hole after putting with totally shaking hands. The 18th hole was normal and I got a little back by finishing with a birdie. As I had been standing waiting to putt on 18, I witnessed one of the best Met area players on that same 15th hole putting off the green INTO the bunker and hitting shot after shot that rolled back into the bunker. It began to dawn on me how thinly I'd escaped disaster there. I can't remember ever seeing three consecutive pin placements to equal those."

A special thanks to Barbara Israel for her insights on her winning round. Devereux Emmett's design continues to challenge the area's best golfers and much applause goes to the staff at St. George's for staging such a superb tournament.

105th Match Play Championship

North Shore Country Club – June 17 - 20

North Shore Country Club in Glen Head, NY produced some fantastic golf and plenty of drama and excitement during the week of June 17th, culminating in a 36 hole showdown on Friday, June 20th between two of the best golfers in the WMGA. The course was in perfect condition and played a very long 5,835 yards. The course laid down the challenge and, as a result, there were many high qualifying scores on Tuesday. Donna Young, Springdale, remained undaunted, however, and shot a 75 to earn medalist honors. Sue DeKalb, Bamm Hollow, and Sheila Torgan, the defending champion from Woodway, prevailed to face one another in the finals. Sheila was up as much as 6 holes before Sue found a way to get herself back into the match and hoist the trophy on the 36th hole. The Sanford Cup was won by Barbara Paonessa, Westchester Hills, who defeated Erica Schindel, Ridgeway. Congratulations to all of our winners and to the entire staff at North Shore for making this such a spectacular tournament.

31st Stroke Play Championship

Quaker Ridge Golf Club – July 15 & 16

Quaker Ridge Golf Club, Scarsdale, NY, hosted the 2008 WMGA Stroke Play Championship on July 15th-16th. The A.W.Tillinghast gem proved to be a worthy challenge to many of our best golfers. Laura Algiero, Westchester Hills, took home the trophy shooting 80-76-156, 10 over par. Her steady play and excellent putting were pivotal in her win. She came from behind to beat K.C. Maloney, Montclair, who was the first day leader (77-82-159). Donna Young, Springdale, played brilliantly to earn second place honors with two solid rounds of 78-80-158.

Ellen Oswald, Westchester CC, was the Net winner with an impressive 146. Barbara Paonessa, Westchester Hills, tied for third in the Gross scoring and came in 2nd Net with a 149. Eileen Moriarty, Huntington Crescent, won the 3rd Net prize with a 150.

It was a beautiful two days of golf. Known for its difficult par 4's, it was the 5th hole, a par 3 over water, which proved to be the greatest test of skill, adding strokes to many a scorecard. At the champagne reception for the winners and players, Laura Algiero was a gracious champion in discussing her victory. Ellen Oswald was also very excited, but had to decline the champagne as she was under 21! Congratulations to all the players and hearty thanks to Quaker Ridge for staging such a fine tournament.

8th Stroke Play “B” Championship

Stanton Ridge Golf & Country Club – July 8

Patricia Quilty
Gross Winner

The Stroke Play “B” Tournament was held on Tuesday, July 8th at Stanton Ridge Golf and Country Club in Whitehouse Station, NJ. It was a perfect golf day, sunny and warm and the conditions of the course were spectacular. Thirty-two golfers from sixteen different clubs teed it up to test their skills. Patricia Quilty, Rock Spring, won the low Gross trophy with a score of 88. Carol Sedlazek, Raritan Valley, earned the low Net honors with a score of 71. Carol spent a long day at Stanton Ridge as she was in the second group to tee off in the morning; but had to stay in case of a play-off situation. It was worth her wait as she got the trophy!

58th Seniors’ “A” Championship

Laurel Links Country Club – June 25 & 26

Laurel Links provided a fantastic setting out on the eastern end of Long Island for the Seniors’ “A” Championship. This links style course opened to much acclaim in September of 2002. The sharp contrast between the blue sky, green grass and fescue waving in the light breeze was stunning on the first day of play. Clouds took over on the second day but did not dampen the high spirits of the participants. The course featured several wooded holes on the back nine and very fast undulating greens.

The Long Island ladies took advantage of their local knowledge and would not relinquish their hold on the course for two days. They took home three of the top five prizes. Congratulations go to Denise Martorana, Southampton, for her superb play earning her the Seniors’ Championship crown. Her two day gross score of 161 (80 - 81) was six strokes better than her extremely able competitors. Bobbie Bauer, Bellport, won the low Net honors with a 156 (79 - 77). Cheryl Brayman, North Shore, claimed 2nd low Gross with a score of 167 (82 - 85). Kathy Baker, Fenway, carried off the 2nd low Net prize with a score of 161 (78 - 83). Barbara Israel won the 3rd low Net with a 162 (80 - 82). This tournament proved once again that one is never too old (or too young) to play great golf!
